

YOUR MIND MATTERS

If you're a college or university student in Nova Scotia, there are services available for you right on campus. Browse the list below to find your school.

Acadia University:

Counselling services: <http://counsel.acadiau.ca/Counsel-main.html>

Student Health Centre: <http://healthservices.acadiau.ca/Welcome-clinic.html>

Dalhousie University:

Dalhousie Student Health and Wellness Centre:

https://www.dal.ca/campus_life/health-and-wellness/services-support/student-health-and-wellness.html

Kings College:

Counselling services:

<https://ukings.ca/campus-community/student-services/health-services/>

Mount St. Vincent University:

Counselling services:

<http://www.msvu.ca/en/home/student-services/default.aspx>

Health Office:

<http://www.msvu.ca/en/home/student-services/healthwellness/healthservices/healthoffice.aspx>

Nova Scotia College of Art and Design:

Accessibility Services and Wellness:

https://nscad.ca/student_life/accessibility-services-wellness/

Nova Scotia Community College:

Wellness and Counselling Services:

<https://www.nsc.ca/services/counselling-wellness/index.asp>

St. Francis Xavier University:

Counselling services: http://www.stfx.ca/prospective/campus_life/health/

St. Marys University:

Counselling services: <http://www.smu.ca/administration/counselling/>

Student Services: <https://smu.ca/academics/sobey/sobey-smu-student-services.html>

University College of Cape Breton:

Counselling services: <http://www.cbu.ca/student-services/health-services/counselling/>

Max Bell Health Centre: <http://www.cbu.ca/student-services/health-services/>

